Let the People come!

By order of the Ex. Com.

Congressional Convention To-day.

The Convention to nominate a Republican candidate for Congress for this district, meets to-day at Racine. The delegates so far as we know them, are true men, and we look for a nomination which shall be popular and successful. We have purposely refrained from making suggestions, as to men, preferring that the delegates, fresh from the people, should do their duty as they think best without interference.

The people are also to be on hand at Racine to-day, to listen to addresses from able speakers.

FATHER AND BETTER FROM MAINE!

A CLEAN SWEEP!

Has anybody heard from MAINE? Is there a Buchanan man in town who believes there has been an election in that State? or that, if there was an election, any of their friends were candidates?

The glorious old Pine Tree State! As goes Maine, so go NEW YORK and PENNSYLVANIA, always. How do the Buchaneers like the prospect?

See here:

HAMLIN, Republican, Governor by TWENTY THOUSAND MAJORITY!

SENATE—all Republican but one!

ASSEMBLY—four-fifths Republican!

SIX MEMBERS OF CONGRESS—all Republican, including a Washburne!

Nobly done for Maine!

Dare not meet the Issue.

We believe that there never has been a time in the history of politics in this country which has exhibited the whole mass of one party, rank and file, leaders and led, press and people, so determined to shirk the real issue of the contest, as in the case with the regular democracy at this moment. Here we are within seven weeks of the Presidential election, and you can hear nothing from them but personal abuse of the Republican candidate and his friends.

Do we tell them that we believe that the extension of Slavery has gone far enough? they answer that Col. Fremont did not discover the Rocky Mountains!

Do we tell them, what they very well know, that their party is the mainstay of the Slavery Extensionists? They reply that Fremont is a Catholic.

Do we ask them whether they are for or against Freedom in Kansas? They tell us that Fremont is a Know Nothing.

We hear some of them say they are for Freedom in Kansas, and we ask them why they uphold the Administration in trying to aid the slavery-extensionists there. They answer that Col Fremont owns Mariposa, and has bought up the press.

We ask them what they mean by upholding the President in enforcing the bloody code of Kansas. They reply that Fremont's notes are not negotiable in Wall Street.

We ask them to meet the issue fairly, trying them with questions, with facts, with arguments all bearing upon it, and their answers are all of the same sort as the above. They charge our candidate with swindling the government, when the committees of their own party reported and the members all spoke in his complete vindication. They cry "Beer," "Beef," as lustily as did John Hook in Patrick Henry's time. They will say anything—do anything, rather than meet the issue.

But while the talkers and the papers are doing thus, a great many of the people are thinking; and whenever they come to the polls, the result is seen. Look at Maine! Look at Iowa! Look at Vermont! These elections all show what the people are doing, and that however politicians may shirk the issue, the people cannot be led blindfold any longer. And therefore we urge our friends everywhere to spend little time in defending Col. Fremont against the slanders put forth by the Democratic press. Having been fully exposed once, that is sufficient. Give the people light on the great issue of the campaign, and let these unscrupulous presses and orators abuse Col. Fremont to the top of their bent. His character will come out the brighter, the more it is rubbed.

Kansas Affairs.

We publish to-day, with an introduction by the Missouri Democrat—a paper from a slave state, whose candor is in favorable contrast with the conduct of the Buchanier presses in the free states—several of the statements of citizens of Leavenworth, Kansas, driven out, destitute of means, by the Ruffians who hold the border.

Further rumors came yesterday by telegraph to the effect that an attempt is to be made by Woodson, who is acting Governor, to arrest Col. LANE, with the aid of U. S. troops. Gov. Geary is doubtless in the territory by this time.

SIGNIFICANT.—Last winter, the regular democracy had a majority of 10, we believe, in the Assembly of this state. Now, we understand, no less than six of the members have seen the error of their ways, and refuse to follow in the ways of slavery democracy any longer, so that the Republicans have now a small majority when all are present!

Replies to Commissioner McGarry.

WAUPUN, Sept. 8th, '56.

Editors Sentinel:

GENTLEMEN—I saw in the Daily Milwaukee News of Wednesday last a long article from Edw. McGarry, State Prison Commissioner, in which he complains of "one of the most flagrant invasions of the rights of a citizen," &c., and in which he accuses me and others of various misdemeanors. Said article is as devoid of truth as Mr. McGarry is of common sense or decency. As to my calling a council of my Know Nothing brethren together, no such organization exists in this place to my knowledge, neither am I a member of such an order. I am a Democrat of the Jackson school, and was a voter, I believe, long before Mr. McGarry left the Emerald Isle.

That I opposed Mr. McGarry's election, I admit, but not because he was a foreigner. All I wish to know about a candidate for office is this —"is he honest, is he capable?" Mr. McGarry's friends do not pretend that he is capable, but was considered at the time of his nomination available, and knowing that at the time he was elected to the Legislature from Milwaukee, that he was violently opposed to "Barstow and the Balance," but was promised the nomination of State Prison Commissioner if he would come into the Barstow traces, I could not support him. A man that can be bought for twenty shillings a day can never receive my vote. As to the gentleman's honesty, let one or two of his business transactions as Commissioner suffice. Before the expiration of Mr. Starks' term of office, he advertised for proposals for building materials, such as stone, lime, sand, &c., and received bids for the same. Said proposals were opened at the appointed time, and certain parties declared the accepted contractors, among whom was Mr. Samuel Amadon, of this town, who was the lowest bidder for the sand, which was eight thousand bushels, or upwards, at 6 cents per bushel. Mr. Amadon called at the Prison several times by appointment of Mr. Starks, to complete said contract, but could not do so. Mr. Starks was not ready; he had but little to say about the matter. Mr. McGarry was then the Deputy of Mr. S., and it was evident that he, and not Mr. Starks, was the real Commissioner. These contracts were never completed; Mr. Starks' term of office expired, and last spring Mr. McGarry advertised for proposals for the same materials. Mr. Amadon intended to bid as before for the sand, but was informed by a person employed about the prison, that Mr. McGarry said that he (Amadon) should not have said contract at any price, as he had signed a petition for Mr. McFarley's removal. Mr. Amadon, under these circumstances, could not bid.

McGarry and his minions had it all their own way, and the Sand Contract was awarded to Thos. Murry an employee of the prison for eleven cents per bushel, although Mr. A. would gladly have furnished any quantity required for six cents, and has since informed me that he could have done the whole contract alone, a difference of $400,00 or upwards. Mr. A. Ingersoll states that he was the lowest bidder for the stone contract by $400,00—no notice was taken of his bid, although he and Mr. Anderson were both amply able to secure the fulfillment of their contracts, and the above named Murry was not worth a dollar.—This Murry claimed the stone contract as being the lowest bidder, (among the favorites I mean) but says that McGarry told him, "these things must be divided," that as he (Murry) had the Sand Contract, that Michael Splan and John McCune must have the Stone Contract, although their bids were considerably higher than his. This is the way in which Mr. McGarry conducts the business of the State. Will the tax payers of Wisconsin quietly submit to this? Is it probable that Mr. McGarry gratuitously bestows hundreds, aye, thousands of dollars of the State funds upon his friends? I will leave the public to draw their own inferences. So much for Mr. McGarry's honesty—with a specimen of his brutality. I will close. When the new prison was built, cells were made in the octagons or towers on the corners for the purpose of solitary confinement. These cells were round, about eight feet in diameter, and tolerably well ventilated. Since McGarry was clothed with brief authority, he has caused these cells to be walled up on the inside, making them about half their original size, and put an extra door on the outside, making them nearly air tight. All the ventilation of those cells was through a tin tube in the wall, about two inches in diameter on the outside, and smaller at the outside end, with three pieces across the end and elbows in it, to exclude the light and air. A prisoner was confined in one of these cells a few weeks since, by orders of McGarry, who was several times taken out by the keepers in a suffering condition, once unable to speak or stand, and a Physician called. One keeper expostulated with McGarry about this kind of treatment, and told him that he (the keeper) had during the night previous, opened the outside door of this cell to give the convict air, that he did not think that the convict could live there. Mr. McHarry was angry, and said the convict could live there well enough, and that the keeper had exceeded his duty—this keeper immediately left. Many other acts of a like nature can be proved, but I am already trespassing upon your columns; I will conclude by informing the Hon. gentleman that the cane of Brooks which he so magnanimously says will never be used by him, I do not think ever will be; but should he or any of his minions wish to resort to that kind of argument, they will always find me at home, and I shall not, like Sumner, be taken by surprise. Respectfully, your ob't. Serv't.

ASSEMBLY CHAMBER, Sept. 10th,

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Little has been done in either body to-day, as the report of the Investigating Committee is not forthcoming and will not be ready for a day or two yet, as the details occupy much more time in writing than was expected. The report will be voluminous and thorough and show a state of things most discreditable to the department.

Both Senate and Assembly were opened with prayers by the Rev. Mr. Britton.

New bills received and referred. Mr. Cameron, enabling Railroads to cross, intersect and join their roads with each other.

Mr. Farr, to protect laborers on railroads.

Mr. Aiken—laying out a State road from Prairie du Chien to La Crosse—from Kickapoo Centre to the Wisconsin River.

Mr. Aiken presented an account.

Mr. Bird presented four accounts.

BILLS PASSED.

To Legalize the acts of certain officers of the village of Geneva; with regard to School District No. 1, City of Kenosha; with regard to the Union District of Albion and Koshkonong; amending act dividing the County of Portage and establishing the County of Wood.

The House went into Committee of the Whole, Mr. H. H. Gray in the chair, and after a short session rose and reported.

The report from the joint committee on the resolution with regard to new business, recommending that the Assembly recede from its amendment, was adopted, and the Assembly receded by 48 ayes, 24 noes. Adjourned.

After this action we can have no new business of a private or local character, and both bodies can give their undivided attention to the real business of the session.

The glorious news from Maine has arrived to make assurance doubly sure with regard to the Presidential contest.

I learn that such men as Gov. Doty, Hon. Byron Kilbourn, and others, whose political sagacity is undoubted, have declared themselves for Fremont. N. W.

Why Breckinridge is on the Stump.

Everybody has been wondering why a candidate for the high office of Vice President should go about, from State to State, making speeches and asking votes. The, explanation is given by the Louisville Journal, a Fillmore paper, as follows:

"A highly respectable gentleman of this city, just returned from Washington, informs us that he was told by some of the leading Democrats in Washington THAT THEY HAD ABANDONED ALL HOPE OF SUCCESS IN NEW YORK AND EVEN IN PENNSYLVANIA, AND HAD NO EXPECTATION OF BEING ABLE TO CARRY A SINGLE NORTHERN STATE, unless John C. Breckinridge, their candidate for Vice Presidency, could save Indiana or Illinois by making stump speeches throughout those States. Accordingly we find Maj. Breckinridge accepting invitations to address mass meetings in Indiana and Illinois. What a melancholy spectacle! A party reduced to this pitch of degradation and despair! It is unparalleled in the annals of our political history!

A Trip Westward and Down the Wisconsin—Boscobel.

MADISON, EDITORS:—A little trip through a very interesting portion of our State has convinced me that Wisconsin is romantic and beautiful as well as fertile and useful. If its valleys and bluffs had been in some old and famous country, their fame would have been world wide long ere this. As it is, the iron horse, on his road of iron, is fast traversing the valley between us and the Mississippi, and it will soon be known to thousands of others besides speculators and inquirers. This valley, varying from two to four miles in width, is very fertile, and is well watered. The bluffs on either side are for the most part, covered with grass to their very summits, and the trees, mostly oak, present the appearance in the distance of cultivated orchards. Those bluffs are very much broken, often appearing like a series of bluffs perpendicular to instead of parallel to the river. The rocks show marked indications of being of volcanic origin.

The whole valley strikes a stranger as peculiarly beautiful and interesting. We passed Mazo Manie, Richland City, Muscoda, &c. Fifteen miles from the latter place, we reached a beautiful grove scattered among the windings of a crystal stream about a mile from the Wisconsin, and I was informed that this was the site of a new town called Boscobel. A few shanties, a blacksmith's shop and store, and the railroad already graded to this point, and promised to be completed by the 1st of November, are all that Boscobel can yet boast of man's handiwork; but preparations are made for much more extensive things, and the picturesque bluffs, the timber which shades them, a fine building stone they contain, the clear stream of soft water, the grove, a fertile country of great extent, and possessing several flourishing towns for which Boscobel must be the market, give good promise of a prosperous future to this young town.

Grant County contains some of the finest land in the State, and is sure, I heard one of the citizens say, to give two thousand majority for Fremont and Freedom.

We advise all tourists to visit the valley of the Wisconsin. M.

MESSRS. KING & CO.:—I sent $1 from Sparta on the 17th of May last for the Weekly Sentinel. I waited and waited for one month and a half, and at last I got one paper, and it was an old one at that. The 4th of June was the first paper I got, and it was nearly in July when I got that; and ever since they have been coming few and scattering. In August, when I should have got the 6th and the 13th, what do you think I got? Why, the 9th and 16th of July; and so they come, two and three at a time. I should like to know whether the trouble is in your office, or at Sparta, or in the mail between. E. M.

☞ We publish the above as a specimen of letters which we are constantly receiving, complaining concerning the non-receipt of papers. In regard to this, we are doubtless frequently to blame, as, with all the pains we can take, neither we nor any other publishers can obtain mailing clerks who will be sure to send every paper correctly in a very large edition, such as ours has got to be.

But the facts adduced by our correspondent show that the fault is not with us. If the papers are ever received at all, is it proof positive that they were mailed on the day of issue, for the whole edition is invariably in the post office here so as to leave for the country by Wednesday morning's mails. We do not know where to look for a correction of such failures.

Fremont Club at Newburg.

NEWBURG, WASH'S CO., }
Sept. 8, 1856. }

MESSRS. EDITORS:—You will please note that that there was a Fremont and Dayton Club organized in the village of Newburg, town of Trenton, in this county, on the 5th of Sept. inst., called the "Union-Saving Club." A Constitution was adopted by the Club to support the Philadelphia nominees, Fremont and Dayton, and the Platform on which they stand.

The following officers were elected:

President—L. Frisby.
Vice President—Wm. Salter.
Secretary—L. Eghart.
Treasurer—James Smith.

Executive Committee consisting of the above officers, and H. Hedding and H. Snider.

On motion to sign the Constitution, there were found present 23 who immediately signed the Constitution.

Mr. Leopold Trakat, of West Bend, being called upon, came forward and addressed the meeting in German, and with good effect. L. F. Frisby, of West Bend, addressed the meeting in English.

The Club adjourned to meet again on the 20th inst. at 2 o'clock P. M., at this village.

Great Meeting at Lafayette, Indiana, on the Tippecanoe Battle Ground.

The Friends of Freedom, Fremont and Dayton are invited to meet on the 1st, 2d and 3d of October on the old Battleground.

The following distinguished, patriotic and eloquent speakers have been invited, and are expected to be present:

Hon. N. P. Banks, Hon. Thos. F. Marshall, Hon. Chas. Remelin, Hon. Thomas Corwin, Gov. S. P. Chase, of Ohio, Hon. Henry Wilson, Hon. John P. Hale, Hon. A. E. Rankin, Hon. W. P. Thompson, of Ky., Col. C. M. Clay, of Ky., Hon. H. Greeley, Gov. Bingham, of Mich., Hon. Fred. Becker, Hon. Samuel Galloway, Gov. Meyers, of Ohio, Hon. A. Burlingame, Hon. P. P. Blair, Hon. Wm. H. Seward.

The Committee at Lafayette, having charge of the arrangement, says:

Ample provisions will be made for the accommodation of all who may attend, though their numbers swell to hundreds of thousands.

Arrangements have been made with the numerous railroads in Indiana to take delegates to and from the Convention at half fare.

Excursion trains will run at all hours between the Battle Ground and Lafayette during the Convention. The old soldiers of the Revolution and of subsequent wars, especially that of Tippecanoe, are especially invited. All who believe that Freedom is national and Slavery is sectional are invited to participate on this occasion, no matter in what portion of our glorious Union they may reside. Come from your prairie homes and your wild wood huts. Come from your work-shops and counting houses. Come from the East, the West, the North and the South.—Come with your wives and your children. Come with your hearts burning for that same liberty which is guaranteed to every American citizen—whether native or adopted—by the Declaration of Independence, and the constitution of our whole country. Come one, come all.

NEW KIND OF BARLEY.—We have received a sample of handsome barley, grown from the grain discovered in the gulches of the Himalayan Mountains, which is entirely free from anything even similar to those poisonous beards attached to the varieties common to our country. Mr. J. W. Briggs, of West Macedon, Wayne Co., three years ago, obtained seven grains of this variety, and has continued to plant since then with a view to their multiplication. He expresses himself much pleased with their general appearance and production. He now proposes to send to any person desiring to experiment with this variety a package of 700 to 800 grains, securely enveloped, by mail, post paid, for 25 cents, accompanied with a few heads, to prove the fact of its being beardless. If the productiveness proves equal to that of our ordinary varieties, its introduction will certainly be a great gain to those farmers who do their threshing by hand or horse-power.—Buffalo Republic.

POWERFUL CEMENT.—The Rosendale cement, used in the construction of the new Custom House, has recently been subjected to a test of its strength, by Mr. Gunnison, Superintendent of construction. He placed two bricks crosswise, and cemented them, and let them remain some two weeks, and then suspended them, and attached a weight to the lower one. It required 252 lbs. to separate the brick, and when the cement finally gave way, it carried portion of the brick away. This is regarded by architects as a very extraordinary degree of strength in cement. —News.

A Kansas Hero.

Mr. Wm. Renkan, whose heroic bearing in Kansas is familiar to us all, passed through here yesterday on his way to Kansas once more. It will be recollected that he, with young Cline, were attacked by a Border Ruffian gang of a dozen mounted men, and, when told to deliver their arms delivered the contents of them, and that, too, with so much effect, that five or six of the pirates bit the dust, and the rest left as fast as horseflesh could carry them.

Renkan was afterwards attacked again by a similar band, and after a desperate fight, was left for dead on the prairie, his horse, rifle and revolvers taken from him and carried off by the Ruffians. Renkan, however, rallied after a while and overtook the gang at their camp at night, recaptured his horse and returned home.

The next day a company of twenty-five men marched upon Renkan and Cline at their homes and took them as prisoners to Harrisonville, Mo. The citizens of the town refused to have them confined there for fear that there would be a descent upon the town by the Free State party.

The ruffians then attempted to take them back into Kansas, but the young men managed to slip the cords from their hands and feet during the night and escaped.

Renkan travelled in disguise through Missouri and Iowa on foot. He has visited his parents in Ozaukee county and is now on his way back again. He was entirely destitute of fire-arms and with but five dollars in his pocket, but a valiant heart beneath his jacket was impatient to be once more on the ground. He had not been assisted heretofore by any one, but felt that if he could be supplied with some weapons of defence in place of those he had lost that it would be a favor.

The State Society had just appropriated for a specific purpose all the funds then in their treasury, so the case was mentioned to several gentlemen passing on the street, whose sympathy was instantly expressed in ready cash and in a few minutes Mr. Renkan went on his way rejoicing. "I feel now," said he, "that I have some backing." Mr. Renkan has about fifty men scattered along the route in Iowa who are awaiting his return to accompany him to Kansas. He intends to have them rallied to join our Wisconsin boys who start next week.

The contributions made in a short time for these brave fellows, in arms and money, amounted to $34,50 and he has gone on his way rejoicing.

THE THREE DOCTORS.—George W. Curtis, Esq., in the course of his speech at the Fremont meeting at Jersey City, on Tuesday night last, said as follows:

"It is said the Union is in danger, and measures must be taken for its preservation. We see before us the Union and the Constitution sick of an attack of slavery, and several doctors are called to prescribe for the patient. First we have a man with a white cravat, which shows that he is of the regular faculty. He inquires the symptoms, and says: "My opinion is that this patient requires a little dose of slavery." This gentleman is Dr. Buchanan. [Laughter.]

Then we have another physician whose features we cannot very plainly discern, the expression of whose face is hidden from us by reason of the dark lantern in his hand. [Laughter.] Suddenly he throws the light waveringly and uncertainly, so that we cannot see the real expression of the patient, and this grave physician looks at the patient, then at us, and after at Dr. Buchanan, and all around, and he shakes and shivers, and says: "Really, if you ask my advice, I have nothing particularly to say, but I really hope in some way the patient may get well." [Laughter.] This is Dr. Fillmore.

Here comes the man of the new school, a man in whose energy and youth, and perception and wisdom you can rely; and what says he? Unbind your patient—let loose his hands and his feet. What he wants is his hands and his feet free, his heart free and his head free. What he wants is air, is light, is liberty. Your patient will not die. [Loud cheers.] This, gentlemen, is Dr. John C. Fremont. [Renewed cheers.] He will raise from the ground his bleeding friend, the Constitution, and bear him to a place of permanent safety, rest and peace. [Applause.]

AN ARMY OF THEM.—Two hundred and fifty-one old democrats of Louis county, New York, have come out for Fremont, in a document signed by them, concluding thus:

"We stand ready and pledge ourselves to vote for no candidate standing before the people on that platform, and enforcing such an anti-democratic principle; but, on the contrary, we essentially unite, for the time being at least, to elect candidates known to be opposed to extending the curse of slavery into free territory, and in favor of giving the administration at Washington into hands which will make it accord with the constitution in the design to extend freedom, and not slavery.

FIFTH WARD FREMONT CLUB.—There will be a meeting of this club this evening at their room, near Bently's Saloon. All members are requested to be present.

IMPORTANT FROM KANSAS!
STARTLING REVELATIONS!
Statements of Persons Driven from their Homes by the Ruffians.

From the Missouri Democrat, 8th Inst.

Subjoined will be found a number of statements from prominent men of Leavenworth City, which, in pursuance of a suggestion made by us on Saturday, have been written out and handed in for publication. We call especial attention to the revelations made by Dr. Norton and Messrs. Davis and McCracken. These gentlemen are well known by many as persons of property and influence in Kansas, and their statements will tend very greatly to establish the truth in regard to the wretched condition of things in the Territory, and especially in Leavenworth City. The statements of Messrs. Quintal and Clark will also be found of importance. We present them all without comment. They tell a tale of wrong and outrage, the enormity of which no reflections of ours could either mitigate or augment:

STATEMENT OF DR. NORTON.

The undersigned has been a practising physician in Weston, Platte County, Mo., from the spring of 1839 to the last of April, 1854. From that time to the 26 of September, 1856, I have resided in Leavenworth City, Kansas Territory, engaged in the latter place, viz: Leavenworth City, in the business of druggist and practising physician, and am one of the thirty-two original proprietors of Leavenworth, with the exception of four or five who resided at Fort Leavenworth. The Leavenworth Association was composed of those of us who had long resided in Weston and vicinity, and being a lively interest in the unparalleled growth and future prosperity of the place as one of the original proprietors, and owning a large number of lots that must be exceedingly valuable if Kansas should be made a free State, and believing that the advantages for education, internal improvements and increase in value of real estate, was greatly in favor of a free State, I expressed my preferences that it should be made such, and unfortunately, perhaps, had voted for the Topeka Constitution and with the Free State party, but had refrained from taking any active part in politics generally, and had endeavored to pursue a strictly conservative course.

On Monday night I was called upon by Fred Emory at the head of an armed company. He asked if I was a law and order man. I replied "I am, Sir." He next inquired in case of invasion if I would take up arms in favor of the Pro-Slavery party. I replied that he knew I was lame in consequence of a fractured leg, but that I would do anything in my power consistently to protect the town. He replied, "that is right; that is satisfactory. You can go to bed and sleep quietly." But the next morning he again called in the most peremptory manner informed me that I must leave forthwith. I told him that I had a large stock of goods, and asked if I could have time to pack them. He told me that I must, hasten down immediately to the boat then lying at the levee (steamer Emma) and said it was then waiting and would soon be off. I immediately passed into the house through my store, and requested my wife to prepare in a hurry to take the steamer then at the levee. We gathered up in the confusion and haste a few clothes for the family. I locked the store door and passed to the back door, which I locked, and with my family of four children, including a very sick babe and other sick children, and feeble wife, hastened upon the boat, leaving a stock of drugs and medicines—costing me over $4,000, besides all my family library, beds and bedding, household furniture, &c. &c.

There were persons in the company engaged in driving me off owing me borrowed money, and on account. About thirty persons were driven upon the same boat in a similar manner.

S. NORTON, M. D.

STATEMENT OF J. A. DAVIS.

About 7 or 800 men, composed of Georgians, South Carolinians, Missourians and Alabamians, have been camping within six miles of the city of Leavenworth. On Saturday and Sunday, 30th and 31st ults., they all came into the city to vote at the municipal election, and to prevent the free State men from voting. There was great excitement in the city all day Sunday and Saturday night by the firing of guns, and shooting by the mob incessantly. They would enter the groceries and imperatively demand liquor from those who kept them. No free State men dared show their heads in the streets, but were making way out of the city as well as they could, into the bushes, or any where they could secrete themselves, wives and children. Many of the free State men in the city hoping that they would receive no harm from at the hands of those in possession of the city.

On Sunday night companies of thirty to fifty or more went all over the city, crying out in a loud voice: for all those who would not take up arms to enforce the territorial laws and repel the abolition ists to leave the territory immediately or suffer the consequences. They halted before my door. I did not go to the door, although I was up. In fact I did not retire at all that night nor the following night. Monday night, between 11 and 12 o'clock, Capt. Emory's company came to my front door. I opened the back door with the intention of making my escape into the bushes with my little child, two years of age, in my arms, but found the house surrounded by armed men. One of them touched my breast with his bayonet and swore that if I should not run away that was."

I went back into the room and a half a dozen of them rushed into the room and commenced searching the house—insulted the women by cursing and swearing and pushing them with their guns. Two men took hold of me and took me out of doors to Captain Emery, who asked me if I was a law-abiding citizen? My answer was, that I had never violated the law in the least degree. He asked me if I would take up arms and fall into their ranks. I told him I would not take up arms to fight. He then told me I had better leave. About 8 o'clock, A. M., I ventured down street. I went to the Mayor, Wm. E. Murphy, and asked him to extend his protect on to me. He said he had no power to protect any one who would not take up arms on their side. He told me to go to Wm. H. Russell and Mr. Carthy. I went to see those gentlemen. I told Mr. McCarty that I, as a brother Mason, claimed his protection and assistance; and I told him that I gave him the grand hailing sign of distress, but he utterly refused to assist me.—They were well acquainted with me, and told me that if I was willing to fight on their side I might stay.

I am a printer by trade. I was there working for the Catholic bishop at the Catholic church; I did not go to my work on Monday. I was afraid to leave my house and my family, for disorder, consternation and dismay reigned all over the city. About twenty women passed me with their children and budgets, running for dear life into the bushes towards the fort.

STATEMENT OF FRANK QUINTAL.

MR. EDITOR:—As many of my fellow citizens have sought at best to furnish you with a true statement of the great wrongs that have been inflicted upon us, I also take advantage of your column is to add my statement. I went to Leavenworth City early in April, 1855, from Morgan County, Illinois, all at that time being quiet. I took my wife along with me. Soon after arriving there I engaged in business, which was pursuing vegetables, poultry, &c., in Missouri, and hauling and selling the same at Leavenworth City. Afterwards I opened a store, and continued following my business, attending to it, and nothing else, up to last Monday, when I was informed by the mob, under the command of Capt. Emory, Wm. Russell, (of the firm of Majors & Russell) and others, that as I was a Free State man I must leave forthwith; or, if I stayed, I must prepare to die, or take up arms and fall in the ranks. I told them that I would not fight with them, that I had never said or done anything that was in violation of the laws of my country. They then ordered me to leave at once, not giving me time to settle up my business, or anything else. The steamer Emma came to on landing during the morning; I was waited upon again by the mob, and told to take my wife and go on board the boat at once. I asked them to let me take my goods with me, but they told me I should not, and said, "Go aboard the boat at once, or we will shoot you on sight."

I called my wife, the mob all the time telling me to hurry up. As soon as she could put on her bonnet, she came to the door, and the mob started us all off of them, and followed us down to the boat—thus compelling me to leave behind my all in the world, which cost me about $500; and this has been the fate of all who, when asked, merely said they were in favor of a free State. This has been my only crime, and for this I have been driven from my home, forced to leave all the world effects I had to the mercy of an infuriated mob. In addition to my stock of goods, I had also bought a lot of ground from Thomas Slocum, adjoining the store of Majors & Russell, on which I had almost enough lumber hauled to put up a house, which I intended to have commenced in a short time. I have written this most important facts in relation to myself; but I cannot attempt to describe the awful state of things that exist there. I have seen men killed and scalped in one or two instances for nothing in the world, only telling the truth when asked their politics. The murder of Mr. Phillips and brother was the most cold blooded murder ever committed in the country. The mob attempted to search his premises; he forbade them, and like a man defended the same, by killing one man and wounding another, for which he was fired at by at least 25 men, and his body completely riddled with balls. Such acts as the above are more than flesh and blood can stand.

I will encroach no more upon your time, but I cannot give you anything like all the atrocities committed in the territory. I am willing to be sworn to the above statement.

FRANK QUINTAL.

Col. Fremont's Accounts.

Senator WILSON, in his speech on Senator Bigler's motion for an investigation into these matters said:

Col. Fremont was entrusted by this government with high and responsible duties. Those duties were far distant from the seat of government, beyond the borders of the States—in the Territories, beyond the father of waters—in the Rocky Mountains—in California. Those high and responsible duties were performed in such a manner as won the commendation of the government, the approval of the honorable senators upon this floor, and the applause and admiration of a grateful people. His name is forever associated with the pathway to the golden shores of the Pacific, through the gorges of the Rocky Mountains—with the conquest and acquisition of California. Money was entrusted to his hands. In the performance of the duties assigned him, men, property, money were all for months—years—entrusted to his keeping. The people will demand why John C. Fremont is arraigned now, eight or ten years after his duties to the government were performed. If his accounts were unsettled—if he had failed to account for money placed in his hands—if he was in any sense a defaulter, "why," the people will demand, "was he not reported as the laws require by the proper officers? Why was his name left out of the list of public officers whose accounts were reported unsettled?"

On the 16th of January, 1854, the Hon. Elisha Whittlesey, Comptroller of the Treasury, made a report to the House of Representatives, in which he says:

"In conformity with these provisions of the Act of Congress approved March 3, 1827, entitled, "An act further to amend the several acts for the establishment and regulation of the Treasury, War and Navy Departments," and of the act passed March 3, 1817, entitled, "An Act to provide for the prompt settlement of public accounts," I transmit herewith, statements of the accounts which remained due prior to the first day of July, 1850, on the books of the Register of the Treasury, and on the books of the Second, Third and Fourth Auditors of the Treasury, respectively."

This report, Mr. President, contains ninety-six pages of names reported in obedience to the requirements of the law, by Mr. Bigger, Register of the Treasury, Mr. Clayton, Second Auditor, Mr. Burt, Third Auditor, and Mr. Dayton, Fourth Auditor. These reports of the Auditors of the Treasury Department contain the names of persons whose accounts have remained unsettled, or on which balances appear to have been due more than three years prior to the first section of the act of Congress, approved March 3, 1809, entitled 'An Act further to Amend the Several Acts for the Establishment and Regulation of the Treasury, War and Navy Departments,'" and "the names of officers whose accounts for advances made or balances unaccounted for, one year prior to July 1, 1853, and have not been settled within the year, prepared in pursuance of the thirteenth section of the act of March 26, 1807.

In this long list of names I find the names of some of the noblest sons of the Republic. The names of Generals Gaines, Worth and Harney are in this list. But the name of John C. Fremont is not among them. If his accounts were unsettled, it balances are against him, why was not his name reported?

On the 1st of July, 1855, no moneys were in his hands unaccounted for. He owed the Government nothing. And at that very time he had a claim for supplies furnished the Government as early as July, 1851. The claim was examined and reported on by a committee of the House of Representatives, at the head of which was Col. Orr, one of the leaders in the Administration of the House. That Committee reported a bill allowing $183,825, and that bill received the unanimous vote of the House and Senate, and the approval of President Pierce on the 20th of July, 1854.

If his accounts were unsettled—if money was in his hands unaccounted for—if the government had any balance against him—why, sir—why did not your administration compel a settlement, and secure any claims of the government when it held $183,825 for John C. Fremont's money in its coffers? Will the Senator from Pennsylvania—will any Senator answer the question?

"Bargain and Corruption."

Wm. H. Seward shows that Mr. Buchanan did exonerate Mr. Clay from the charge.

The Louisville Journal (K. N.) accuses Mr. Buchanan of having suffered Henry Clay to rest under the false charge of "bargain and corruption" when it was in his power to have cleared him. Yet Prentice, the editor of the Journal, on his life of Henry Clay, published a number of years ago, showed that Mr. Buchanan did, upon the first opportunity, relieve Mr. Clay of that charge, and we have before us now still better testimony to that effect. Wm. H. Seward, the head of the present republican party, in his life of John Quincy Adams, [Derby, Miller & Co., New York, 1849,] on pages 167 and 168, in speaking of the "bargain and corruption" charge, says:

"All now rested with Mr. Buchanan. His testimony would either prostrate Mr. Clay, or place him, in regard to this matter, beyond the reach of the foulest tongue of calumny. In due time Mr. Buchanan made his statement, in which he denied, in unequivocal language, having made any such proposition to Gen. Jackson.—This statement fully and triumphantly exonerated Mr. Clay, Mr. Adams, and their friends, from the charge of Book Notices.

"THE PEOPLE'S ATLAS AND TOPOGRAPHICAL AND STATISTICAL GAZETTEER OF THE WORLD," by Rev. ANDREW MACKIE, minister of the Philadelphia Conference, [illegible] Philadelphia.

We have received a copy of the book some days since, but have been unable until [illegible] to glance through its pages sufficiently to form a correct idea of its character and peculiar merits. It is, however, a "method" which, we believe, gives the name to that very large and highly respectable denomination of Christians, the Methodists, and is based upon the [illegible] of their ministers, who "domesticate" from place to place all their lives. Of course the history of the life of any one such man must be full of interest, and when a man of mark and standing, as Mr. MACKIE undoubtedly is, sits down to write his own history, the public may expect a work of well-worth reading. So it is with Mr. MACKIE. He seems to be, and his object in writing the book—the papers, we [illegible] of the daily of the "Reading, Church," will communicate the book to readers in the Methodist denomination, irrespective of the special interest of the subject.

RETIREMENT OF JUDGE HUBBELL.—In another part of to-day's Sentinel will be found the preliminary [illegible] of the Milwaukee Bar upon the retirement of the Hon. W. LAIDLAW'S LAND AGENCY!

Office 330 East Water Street, 3 Doors South of Walker House.

AMONG the extensive assortment of Real Estate I have for sale, I would respectfully call the attention of those in search of a large paying investment to an "Out lot" of 20 acres. Said lot is situated one mile and a half West of the city, and besides being handsomely timbered, it commands the most beautiful view of the city, lake and harbor. The soil cannot be surpassed, and on the whole, this tract of land is unequalled in the county of Milwaukee, for beauty and availability. Land, the same distance North of the city, is selling at from $200 to $300 per acre, and there should be no reason why the land I offer should not be more valuable, on account of the superiority of location and view. I will sell, however, at about half the above figures, or exchange for city property.

MATHEMATICS!!

Young Men! Improve your Evenings.

SALON BLANCHARD, late Strahan's Mathematician of the University of Edinburgh, Scotland, respectfully announces the resumption of his evening classes for tuition on the plan which received so much approbation last fall and winter. There will be one class system, and as the number of pupils at each series of meetings is restricted to 20, members enjoy all the advantages without the expense of private lessons. The course will embrace

1. Algebra, geometry, trigonometry, conic sections, the differential and integral calculus, the calculi of variations, finite differences and symbols with their applications to each surveying, strength of material, navigation and practical astronomy, life assurance, rational mechanics, and the undulatory theory of light.

2. Book keeping in all its details.

3. Writing and arithmetic—great attention paid to those desirous of acquiring a flowing business hand. The arithmetical course, includes general averages and equation of payments, and is modified to the peculiar vocation of each pupil. Instruction given during the day. Further particulars on application at the rooms on Third St., (last house) near M. & M. R. R. Depot, from 7 to 8 P. M., or by note addressed to box 1069. sept-1892 9w1*
